Our determination of your application to vary your permit is complete. We're satisfied that you can continue to carry out your activities in accordance with the variation, without harm to the environment or human health. I enclose a notice showing the changes to your permit. Please keep this in a safe place with your other permit records.

This letter contains web links to other documents. If you aren't able to access these phone our Customer Contact Centre for help on 03708 506 506.

If you're not familiar with our document How to comply with your environmental permit please read it, as this will help you understand how to meet the conditions of the permit. You can find this on our website at

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/how-to-comply-with-your-environmental-permit>

Please look at the table below and note any of the information or actions that apply to your permit.

If...

the variation means you're now carrying out a waste operation or activity and need to submit quarterly waste returns on waste movements

Note: This does not apply to permits that only have stand alone water discharge or groundwater activities.

you need to submit other returns your variation has added an installation to your permit for the first time then..

you can get the forms you need from our website <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/national-operator-waste-returns>

When you complete your return use the waste returns reference above.

send these to your area office. Speak to your area officer to check local arrangements.

we've enclosed the pollution inventory letter, notice and fact sheet.

Rights of appeal

If you're not happy with any permit condition that has been imposed by the variation you may appeal to the Secretary of State. If you want to appeal any condition imposed as a result of your application you must make your appeal no later than six months from the date of the variation notice. If you want to appeal any condition we've added as an Environment Agency initiated variation you must make your appeal no later than two months from the date of the notice.

Further information about making an appeal and the forms you will need are available from the Planning Inspectorate website or from the contact details below. .
